Message— “That They Will Know,” Missions Conference 2016

Guest Speaker: Pastor Rafael Restrepo

Scripture— Gal 1: 15-16

“But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and who called me by his grace, 16 was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone;”

Main Idea—

The day Paul was saved, he knew he was “called.”

Being good isn't good enough in sharing our faith in Jesus Christ... you have to tell people— as did the apostle Paul, who knew that was the purpose of his life.

He needed to tell people:

- That we are saved by grace through faith alone (Eph 2:8), for our redemption— the forgiveness of sins.
- That Jesus Christ is our all in all— not just until you get saved, but that Christ may continue to work in us (Christlikeness).
- That the fruit of our salvation is our involvement in God's mission.
- That to be a part of the restoration of God's work in the world.

Application—

Do you consider yourself “called?” If so, in what ways?

What is God telling you after hearing this message?

What might that look like in your life? How will you serve?
